

BUS. 103 Introduction to Business Information Systems

BUS. 103 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS INFORMATION SYSTEMS

An introduction to computer systems and software applications and their impact on the business environment. Topics include computer architecture, hardware, software, computer terminology and theory. Students use software applications as problem solving tools for business projects. Letter Grade Only. Degree Credit.

Units: 3

Hours/semester: 48-54 Lecture; 96-108 Homework

Transfer Credit: CSU, UC

C-ID: BUS 140

