

MART 362 Introduction to Digital Photography

MART 362 INTRODUCTION TO DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPHY

An introduction to the theory and technology of digital photography. Exploration of the digital camera in both professional and consumer use. Techniques of taking a photograph, types of storage, transferring of images, image editing, and optimizing final output will be evaluated. Grade Option (Letter Grade or Pass/No Pass). Degree Credit.

Units: 3

Hours/semester: 48-54 Lecture; 32-36 TBA; 64-72 Homework

Transfer Credit: CSU, UC

