

MART 364 Intermediate Photography

MART 364 INTERMEDIATE PHOTOGRAPHY

A continuation of Introduction to Digital Photography with an emphasis on creative development, technical proficiency, and advanced camera control. Students explore manual exposure, lighting, composition, color management, and post-production techniques to produce expressive photographic projects. The course includes fieldwork, critiques, and the creation of a professional-quality photography portfolio. Grade Option (Letter Grade or Pass/No Pass). Degree Credit.

Units: 3

Hours/semester: 40-45 Lecture; 24-27 Lab; 80-90 Homework

Transfer Credit: CSU, UC

