

FSE. 225 Psychology of Death and Dying

FSE. 225 PSYCHOLOGY OF DEATH AND DYING

This course is an introduction to thanatology and basic psychological terminology and theories, with an emphasis on the study of grief, bereavement, and mourning. The content provides the knowledge required of the funeral director to work effectively with families as a facilitating agent. Follow-up programs initiated by the funeral director are examined in detail as well as community support groups with whom the funeral director participates. Major emphasis is placed on the student identifying problem areas in the field, intervening, and professional referral. Letter Grade Only. Degree Credit.
