

RADT 408 Perspectives in Radiology

RADT 408 PERSPECTIVES IN RADIOLOGY

Designed for students who have been accepted to the radiologic technology program, this course provides an introduction to hospital policies including codes of conduct, radiation protection, ethics, medical asepsis, patient care, and confidentiality. Letter Grade Only. Degree Credit.

Units: 1.5

Hours/semester: 24-27 Lecture; 48-54 Homework

Prerequisites: Acceptance to the Radiologic Technology Program.

Transfer Credit: CSU

