

RADT 410 Radiographic Positioning

RADT 410 RADIOGRAPHIC POSITIONING

Students learn concepts and terminology in radiographic positioning, anatomy and selected pathology of the chest, abdomen, pelvis, upper and lower extremities. Laboratory experience with ionizing and non-ionizing equipment is included. Letter Grade Only. Degree Credit.

Units: 4

Hours/semester: 48-54 Lecture; 48-54 Lab; 96-108 Homework

Prerequisites: Acceptance in the Radiologic Technology Program.

Transfer Credit: CSU

