

RADT 471 Specialized Techniques: Fluoroscopy

RADT 471 SPECIALIZED TECHNIQUES: FLUOROSCOPY

This course covers fluoroscopic equipment, radiation protection, illumination, image evaluation, eye anatomy and physiology, patient and personnel dose reduction. Intended for second year students in the Radiologic Technology Program or licensed Radiographer. Grade Option (Letter Grade or Pass/No Pass). Degree Credit.

Units: 2.5

Hours/semester: 32-36 Lecture; 24-27 Lab; 64-72 Homework

Prerequisites: RADT 435, or California Radiologic Technology License.

Transfer Credit: CSU

