

DRAM 140 Introduction to the Theatre

DRAM 140 INTRODUCTION TO THE THEATRE

Discover the world of theatre - its process, people, performances, audiences, and its dynamic relationship with society. Engage in creative and research projects in acting, playwriting, directing, and design. Experience theatre's diversity, from edgy dramas to splashy Broadway musicals. Read plays, see film adaptations of stage scripts, examine dramatic criticism. Grade Option (Letter Grade or Pass/No Pass). Degree Credit.

Units: 3

Hours/semester: 48-54 Lecture; 96-108 Homework

Recommended: Eligibility for ENGL 100.

AA/AS Degree Requirements: Area C1

Transfer Credit: CSU (CSU GE Area C1), UC (IGETC Area 3A)

C-ID: THTR 111

