Examples of disruptive activities are blocking access to college facilities, disrupting classroom activities to the point where the instructor, in their opinion, is no longer able to continue the class, heckling an assembly speaker so that the speaker cannot continue talking, and unauthorized use of sound equipment.

Should disruptive activity continue, the administration may suspend those individuals continuing to engage in disruptive behavior. The administration of the College may take whatever steps are necessary to restore order, including requests for aid from appropriate law enforcement agencies.
5. Violent behavior will be defined as any action that results in physical harm to persons or property or an overt and public threat of harm.
6. In case of violence, the President or their delegated representative, may request immediate and appropriate action by law enforcement authorities.
7. In the case of extreme violation of the rule(s), a student may face expulsion by action of the Board of Trustees on recommendation of the College President and the Chancellor-Superintendent. Procedures in this instance are provided for in the District Rules and Regulations, as adopted by the Board of Trustees.
