

AA-T English

Students majoring in English choose from an assortment of courses in analytical and creative composition, literature of the United States and the world, and film studies. Students are taught to examine texts from various perspectives in order to understand cultural contexts and experiences, become aware of biases, and appreciate diverse points of view.

Career Opportunities

A major in English prepares students for careers in journalism, editing, education, multimedia, communication, administration, public service, advertising, broadcasting, and other fields requiring excellent critical thinking, reading, and communication skills.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students completing this program will be able to:

1. Critically analyze written and oral arguments.
2. Conduct effective research.
3. Demonstrate civic consciousness.
4. Write and speak critically, thoughtfully, and persuasively in interdisciplinary contexts.
